

LIVE REVIEWS

BRITISH STEEL
— 2009 —
CAMDEN UNDERWORLD

"Winding up an all-too-brief 40-minute performance with the golden oldie 'Ain't Life A Bitch', Bitches Sin were more enjoyable still. I'd like to see them headline someday."

'Dave Ling's Diary' April 2009

"'Mr Toomey' set the scene for the next forty minutes as Tony Tomkinson's larger-than life vocals and Ian Toomey's guitar workouts – ably backed up by the rock-solid rhythm section of DBasser and drummer Steve Turton – blazed a path of high energy heavy metal through the Underworld."

'Fireworks' John Tucker

"....There were more stylish guitar heroics to follow when the highly regarded Bitches Sin took the stage..... Classic track 'Strangers On The Shore' was a definite highlight of the Bitches Sin set - if not the entire day...."

'Powerplay' Chris Kee

"In 'Strangers On The Shore', Mr. Toomey proved to be the guitar wizard, that I am fan of for so many years now."

'Furyrocks.com' Toine van Poorten

New Bitches Sin single available from September 2009 featuring 'Sounds Of Silence', all new track 'What Loving Means' and the sensational 'Red Skies' from their amazing new album 'UDUVUDU'

www.bitchessin.co.uk
www.myspace.com/bitchessin
info@bitchessin.co.uk